

The reason people apply to be on a 'do not call' list is because they DO NOT want to be annoyed by telemarketers of any kind. If we have discontinued a relationship with any bank or other company, it is because we no longer want to do business with them. Please do not pass any ammendments to this bill.